

Pray Lectio Divina or Ignatian Imaginative with Mark 5: 21-43

Fog Reflection

- 1) Have you ever reached out to God as a last resort? What was the circumstance? What made you turn to God? How was the situation resolved?
- 2) What prevents you from reaching out to Jesus in moments of need? How can this story of the hemorrhaging woman offer you consolation?
- 3) In what area(s) of your life do you hear Jesus calling you to "Arise" ... "Do not be afraid; just have faith" ?

Weekly Challenge

Really dive into these stories. Consider praying Lectio or Imaginative prayer for four consecutive days:

Day 1: Mark 5: 21-43 (Whole Story)

Day 2: Mark 5: 21-24, 35-43 (Jairus' Daughter)

Day 3: Mark 5: 25-34 (Hemorrhaging Woman)

Day 4: Mark 5: 21-43 (Whole Story)

What changed from Day 1 to Day 4? What did God reveal to you through your in-depth prayer with this passage?
